(Office of Financial and Insurance Services Releases Publications in Arabic)

This week, the Office of Financial and Insurance Services announced that they have released some of their most popular free consumer publications in Arabic.

"Michigan's diversity presents us with opportunities to provide information in a variety of forms," said Commissioner Linda A. Watters. "Providing key consumer protection information to Arabic speaking Michigan citizens enables them to take advantage of information that we sometimes take for granted."

The publications released are:

- Brief Explanation of Michigan No-Fault Insurance
http://www.michigan.gov/documents/1_148330_7.pdf
- Consumer's Guide to No-Fault Automobile Insurance In Michigan
http://www.michigan.gov/documents/2_148331_7.pdf
- Homeowners Insurance: Replacement Cost vs. Repair Cost Policies
http://www.michigan.gov/documents/3_148332_7.pdf
- Are You Drowning in Debt
http://www.michigan.gov/documents/4_148335_7.pdf
- Should I be Suspicious?

These publications are now available on the OFIS website at www.michigan.gov/ofis in the publications section, or can be requested by the public toll free at 1-877-999-6442.

Commissioner Watters said, "Consumers deserve protection regardless of what language they speak. This effort increases access to information about pocketbook issues of importance to all Michigan residents."

These publications are also available in Spanish.
